BUSES HAVE CHANGED TO THE 24 HOUR CLOCK

VENTURE TRANSPORT

has introduced 24 HOUR CLOCK times throughout this timetable book. With this system all hours are numbered consecutively from 1 to 24 as shown on the clock face above. In effect 12 has been added to all p.m. times so that for example 10.10 p.m. becomes 2210 hours.

Here are a few more examples:

1.00 a.m. — 0100 hours	5.45 p.m. — 1745 hours
6.30 a.m. — 0630 "	8.00 p.m. — 2000 "
10.15 a.m. — 1015 "	11.20 p.m. — 2320 "
12 noon — 1200 "	12 midnight — 2400 "
2.30 p.m. — 1430 "	12.15 a.m. — 0015 "

Venture Buses move with the times

THE VENTURE TRANSPORT CO. (NEWCASTLE) LTD.

THE C. & E. BUS CO. LTD.

GENERAL REGULATIONS AND CONDITIONS

1. CARRIAGE OF PASSENGERS—The Company will to the best of its ability endeavour to maintain all advertised services according to its Time Table or other advertisement but does not guarantee or undertake that vehicles will leave or arrive at advertised times nor that accommodation for holders of Season, Contract, Twelve Journey or Return Tickets will be available. The Company, however, reserves the right without previous notice to the Public, to alter, suspend, withdraw, cancel or deviate the route of any vehicle or service or alter all or any of the advertised times of journeys and will not be liable for any loss, damage, injury or inconvenience which may be sustained by any person through any such alteration, suspension, withdrawal, cancellation or deviation of route, nor through any failure of any vehicle to perform its journey or to depart or arrive at the times advertised or through any other cause whatsoever.

Passengers must not lean out of the windows of vehicles nor board or alight except at a recognised stopping place when the vehicles have stopped.

2. FARES—Passengers must obtain a ticket for the fare payable in respect of the route or part of the route over which they desire to travel. Tickets must be retained and shown on demand, or the full fare paid for which there will be no refund.

Passengers boarding a vehicle between fare stages will be charged from the previous fare stage. Passengers alighting between fare stages will be charged to the fare stage beyond.

Children under three years of age, if not occupying a seat, are carried free, provided that each child is in the charge of an adult fare-paying passenger and not more than one such child accompanies each adult fare-paying passenger.

Children aged three and under fourteen years will be charged half ordinary Single Fare, provided they do not occupy a seat required by an adult fare-paying passenger.

3. RETURN TICKETS—Return Tickets are available for one journey in each direction and are available for the return journey within three months from the date of issue. No refund will be made if the return journey is not made within the said period. The issue of a return ticket shall not be deemed to warrant that a vehicle shall be available nor accommodation on any vehicle.

4. TWELVE JOURNEY TICKETS—Twelve Journey Tickets which can be obtained from the Conductors and are issued subject to all the General Conditions and also the following:—

- (a) They must be used within 14 days of the date of issued and are not transferable. No refund will be made in respect of any unused journeys.
- (b) They must be signed by the holder and produced to the Conductor on each journey. On the last journey the Conductor will retain the Ticket and issue to the passenger an Exchange Ticket therefore.
- (c) Full fare will be charged on failure to produce the Ticket.
- (d) The Company does not guarantee that any particular vehicle or vehicles will run on any particular day or at any particular time.

5. CONTRACT AND SEASON TICKETS, JOINT THROUGH RETURN TICKETS—These tickets are issued subject to the Conditions set out herein and also to Special Conditions set out on the application forms or referred to on the tickets. Contract and Season Tickets at special rates are available for scholars who are under 18 years of age at the date of expiry of the ticket but otherwise are not issued at reduced rates to children. Application forms can be obtained at the Company's offices. The Company reserves the right to refuse the issue of Contract or Season Tickets.

6. INTERAVAILABILITY OF TICKETS—Persons holding or using tickets issued by the Company entitling them to travel on road services of other operators shall have no further rights against the Company than if such services were the services of the Company and shall be subject to the Conditions set out herein.

7. DOGS—Small dogs which in the opinion of the Conductor will not cause inconvenience to passengers may at the sole discretion of the Conductor be allowed to accompany a passenger but the Company reserves the right to refuse to carry any dog. No dog must be permitted on omnibus seats.

8. PASSENGERS' LUGGAGE—A suitcase or single package of reasonable dimensions which does not occupy or in the opinion of the Conductor prevent the occupation of a seat or otherwise obstruct passengers will be carried free at the passenger's risk in respect of each fare-paying passenger upon the vehicle in which the passenger travels. Other personal luggage and any bulky luggage, boxes, parcels and packages and folding mailcarts accompanied by a passenger will be conveyed if the Company considers they can conveniently be carried on the vehicle in which the passenger travels and will be charged for each item at the rate of 9d., per single journey on any one route. No liability will be accepted for any loss or damage of or to the luggage whether arising from the Company's negligence or default or from any cause whatsoever.

9. UNACCOMPANIED PARCELS—The Company carries parcels subject to the Conditions of Carriage set out in the Parcels Notices.

10. LOST PROPERTY—Regulations have been made by the Minister of Transport under the Road Traffic Acts, 1930-1937, dealing with property left on Public Service Vehicles.

Any passenger leaving property on an omnibus is advised to report the loss to any of the Company's offices in each case giving full particulars of the property lost and all applications by post relating to such property must be accompanied by a stamped addressed envelope.

Any person who finds any property accidentally left in one of the Company's vehicles must immediately hand it in the state in which he finds it to the Conductor, who will hand it to the Company unless it is property claimed before he has an opportunity to do so.

Property handed in to the Company will be retained and may be reclaimed on payment of a fee as prescribed in the Regulations.

The Company will not in any case be responsible for any loss or damage howsoever caused of or to any property left in any vehicle or on any premises of the Company whether or not such property shall have been found by or handed to a Conductor or other servant of the Company, or deposited by him with the Company.

11. CONDUCT OF PASSENGERS—Passengers are subject to the provisions of the Public Service Vehicles (Conduct of Drivers, Conductors and Passengers) Regulations 1936, made by the Minister of Transport.

CARRIAGE OF PARCELS

CARRIAGE OF PARCELS—

1. The Company reserves the right to refuse to receive or carry any parcel without assigning any reason for such refusal and in particular will not carry livestock or articles of a bulky nature or of an offensive or dangerous nature or likely to injure other articles or the vehicles.

- 2. (a) Parcels for carriage must be handed in at the Company's office or at one of its depots or to the Conductor of one of the Company's service vehicles.
(b) The charge in accordance with the rates from time to time prescribed by the Company shall be paid at the time of handing in the parcel.
(c) Parcels must be fully and correctly addressed and if containing anything of a perishable or fragile nature must be clearly marked to that effect.
(d) The Company does not undertake to deliver any parcel to a particular address nor to carry it on a particular omnibus.
(e) Parcels not called for within 3 days of arrival at the Company's office or depot nearest to the Consignee's address will be stored and a charge of 2d. per day made for each day after the third (inclusive of the day of arrival).
(f) Parcels may be delivered to any person representing himself to be either the consignee or the authorised representative of the consignee.
(g) Parcels will not be carried on Bank holidays.

3. Parcels not called for within three months of arrival or in respect of which any charges are not paid may at any time be sold by the Company either privately or by auction or otherwise and the proceeds applied by them in satisfaction of all charges and expenses incurred or outstanding in connection therewith—Provided that in the case of goods which are offensive or perishable or dangerous either in nature or condition the Company may at any time after arrival destroy or otherwise dispose of the same in such manner as the Company may think fit. The decision of the Company as to the offensive, perishable or dangerous nature or condition of a parcel shall be final.

4. All parcels are accepted, carried and held by the Company or its servants or other agents entirely at the risk of the consignor and the Company its servants and agents shall not be liable for any loss, mis-delivery or non-delivery of or damage or delay to parcels accepted for carriage howsoever arising.

5. The Consignor of a parcel shall be liable to make good all loss, damage and injury occasioned to the Company, its servants or agents by reason of or arising out of the nature or condition of the parcel or anything contained therein and shall indemnify the Company, its servants or agents against all actions, claims and liability arising in manner aforesaid.

REGULATIONS AS TO LEFT LUGGAGE

1. In these conditions and in the Company's bills, notices and tickets where when referred to in these Conditions or in any notice or ticket the word "article" means any luggage chattel or parcel accepted by the Company for deposit at one of its cloakrooms or in such other place as the Company in its discretion may think fit.

2. A charge of threepence will be made in respect of each article and must be paid at the time the article is deposited and for each day after the day of deposit a further charge of one penny will be made in respect of each article until it is withdrawn from deposit. The Company may refuse to deliver any article except against the surrender of the ticket issued in respect thereof. The delivery of such article to the holder of the said ticket shall absolve the Company from all or any claim in respect thereof.

3. The Company may refuse to accept for deposit any article without assigning any reason for such refusal and in particular will not accept livestock, or any article which is unduly bulky or which is or comprises or contains anything of an offensive or dangerous nature or likely to injure any person or damage any property. The Company shall be entitled at any time to open and examine the contents of any article and to remove and deal with in such manner as they may decide (including destruction or sale) any article or the contents of any article which, in their opinion, might be in any way offensive or dangerous or likely to injure any person or damage any property. If any person shall deposit any article comprising or containing anything of an offensive or dangerous nature the Company shall be entitled to recover from such person all damages costs and claims for which the Company or its servants may suffer or for which they shall be liable to any other person, firm or company.

4. Articles of a perishable or fragile nature should be clearly marked "Perishable" or "Fragile" as the case may be.

5. (1) The Company shall have a particular lien upon any article for their charges in respect thereof and also a general lien thereon for any moneys owing by the depositor to them on any account.

(2) The Company shall be entitled without giving any notice (except as hereinafter expressly provided) to sell either privately or by auction or otherwise:—

(a) any article upon which the Company shall have a particular or general lien as aforesaid if the charges or moneys in respect of which such lien has arisen shall not be paid within 14 days after either (i) the Company shall have made application for payment thereof or (ii) the Company shall have caused to be inserted in one country or local newspaper circulating in the district where such article shall have been deposited an advertisement containing notice of such intended sale and giving shortly a description of the article intended to be sold together with either the name of the owner or depositor thereof or the number of the ticket issued in respect thereof: or—

(b) any article which shall not be withdrawn from deposit within 3 months from the date of its deposit: or—

(c) any article or the contents thereof which they are authorised to sell under condition 3 hereof.

(3) The Company may apply the proceeds of such sale first in or towards satisfaction of all expenses incurred in connection with the sale and the advertisement thereof (if any) next in satisfaction of any particular or general lien which the Company may have on such article and subject thereto shall deliver the residue (if any) to any person surrendering the ticket issued in respect of such article—or if the said ticket shall not be available to any person who satisfies the Company of his title thereto by such evidence as may be deemed satisfactory by the Company and upon his signing such form of indemnity as the Company may require.

6. Neither the Company nor its servants shall be liable for any loss, mis-delivery or detention of or damage howsoever arising to any article deposited or the proceeds of sale thereof including loss, mis-delivery, detention or damage occasioned by any wrongful or negligent act or default of the Company or its servants.

REGULATIONS AND CONDITIONS OF DAY, HALF-DAY AND EVENING TOURS

1. BOOKINGS—Seats for day, half-day and evening tours may be booked in advance either personally at the Company's offices, the offices or premises of the Company's agents or by post. The full fare must be paid on booking. If after booking a seat a passenger cancels the booking, the fare paid will be forfeited to the Company who may in their sole discretion make a refund subject to such deduction to cover expenses incurred as the Company may decide. If a tour is cancelled fares will be refunded.

2. CHILDREN—Children between the ages of 3 and 14 years are allowed to travel at half the authorised adult fare.

3. LUGGAGE AND DOGS—No luggage and no dogs will be carried on any of these tours.

4. TICKETS—Tickets are not transferable. Tickets must be retained during the whole tour and shown on demand or full fare paid for which there will be no refund.

5. The Company expect to carry out each tour as advertised but reserve the right without previous notice to alter or cancel any tour at its discretion. The Company will not be liable for any loss, damage, delay, injury or inconvenience sustained by any person through the alteration of departure or arrival times or through any alteration or cancellation of any tour or through failure of any vehicle to perform its journey through any detention, delay, early running or want of punctuality. The Company will not accept any responsibility if any passenger is not present at the time of departure of the tour or at any intermediate point en route.

6. PASSENGERS must not lean out of the windows of the vehicle or board or alight while the vehicle is in motion. The Company will not be responsible for any damage or injury sustained by passengers consequent upon a break with this condition.

7. PASSENGERS are subject to the provisions of the Public Service Vehicles (Conduct of Drivers, Conductors and Passengers) Regulations, 1936, made by the Minister of Transport.
